

VaultStreet Executive Bios

Carter Kirkwood – CEO

Carter thought for years about the issues of managing financial documents. His 'ah ha' moment led to VaultStreet.

Carter created the core technology architecture for VaultStreet based on his experience as an attorney and his knowledge of encryption and the internet. He has been an intellectual property transaction attorney at Irell & Manella, where he specialized in representing e-commerce and software businesses that developed, licensed, or acquired technology. Representative clients included AT&T, Hewlett-Packard, Amgen, Broadcom, Paul Allen, Charter Communications, venture capitalists, start-up companies, and individual entrepreneurs. Carter is a Member of the University of Chicago Law Review.

Damien Hanna – CTO

Damien Hanna has over 20 years of software development, design and management experience from industry leading software development companies and multiple startups, in both the consumer and enterprise markets. Most recently, he was the V.P. of Engineering for Vendare Media (a leading performance-based marketing company that reaches over 120 million unique consumers monthly), where he oversaw Vendare's software development and a team of over 40 technology professionals. He has held executive positions at: Sendia Corporation (now part of Salesforce.com), X-Drive (an AOL company), and HomePage.com (an IdeaLab! company). Early in his career Damien was an engineer at Microsoft and Oracle.

Michael Harrison – CFO

Michael has over 15 years CFO/COO experience in which he has overseen and managed day-to-day operations in the areas of finance, accounting, business, and legal affairs. He was the CFO and COO for World of Wonder (oversaw all operations of a company with over 80 employees and freelancers), Managing Director of IFP (home of the Independent Spirit Awards, oversaw 50 employees). He has negotiated deals with broadcasters such as A&E, AMC, Bravo, Discovery, HBO, Imagine, Lifetime, Lions Gate, MTV, NBC, and Sundance Channel.

Bruce Kin Huie – CMO

Bruce understands financial services. His 15 years of marketing experience includes both online services and software technology. Bruce's track record of spotting emerging markets and increasing measurable share in established markets has led many companies to success. He has held management positions at AT&T, Avid, CyberCash, CyberSource and InfoSeek. Industry expertise includes Internet payment, fraud management, customer acquisition strategies, secure mobile commerce, enterprise software, interactive Web publishing and messaging applications.

Paul Hutchins – Vice President, Strategic Relations & Business Development

Paul has spent the past 20 years helping companies increase market share and ROI by conceptualizing innovative and creative ways to enter new markets, leverage internal resources and create and form strategic alliances. He has successfully developed new products, created new distribution channels, and formed numerous partnership and affiliate/affinity relationships in both foreign and domestic markets.

While at Wal-Mart and Equifax, he architected a number of key initiatives, performed extensive due diligence to determine the strategic fit of prospective partnership/acquisition opportunities, and outlined specific go to market strategies which ensured swift and adequate penetration into the financial services marketplace.

Paul was most recently Vice President of Marketing at First American Companies. He is a graduate of the University of Arkansas.
